

Invitation to become an Official Sponsor and/or Exhibitor

The Organizers of the International Conference and Exhibition “The Future of Food Safety”, featured by the 6th MoniQA International Conference, Rome, Italy, 9-11 November 2020, would like to invite you to sponsor this high level meeting and help make it a success by signing up for one of our sponsor packages at https://foodsafetyrome2020.moniqa.org/sites/default/files/pdf/MoniQA-Conference-Rome-2020-Sponsoring-Form_2020-02-20.pdf. Various sponsorship packages have been put together which include different benefits and a number of complimentary registrations that you may use to invite your own staff and/or your clients. The success of this conference depends on your support and we appreciate an early decision and sign up for one of our sponsorship packages. The sooner you decide to become a sponsor, the more promotion activities leading to the event will be relevant for you.
